

Nordic Iron Ore appoints interim CEO

As previously communicated, Nordic Iron Ore's CEO Lennart Eliasson retired at the turn of the year. Lennart Eliasson will continue as interim CEO on a consulting basis.

The company's former CEO Lennart Eliasson has since January 1 continued to work for Nordic Iron Ore in the role of interim CEO on a consulting basis. The work of recruiting a new CEO is ongoing.

- We are very pleased that Lennart Eliasson is taking on the role of interim CEO. Nordic Iron Ore is in a very interesting phase and as Lennart continues his work, we also ensure continuity and a smooth transition when the new CEO eventually takes over, says Tomas Olofsson, Chairman of the Board of Nordic Iron Ore AB.

Nordic Iron Ore Group is a mining company with the ambition to revive and develop the iron ore production of Ludvika Mines in Blötberget and Håksberg. The company also intends to expand its mineral resources, and upgrade them to ore reserves, primarily through exploration and other studies of the connecting Väsman field. The Company has all the necessary permits in place for the mine in Blötberget and will be able to produce iron ore of extremely high quality.
