About HANZA:

By gathering different manufacturing technologies locally, we create shorter lead times, more environmentally friendly processes and increased profitability for our customers. This way we contribute to a more sustainable future. To put it simply, we modernize and streamline the manufacturing industry.

Our company was founded in 2008 and today has an annual revenue of SEK 2.3 billion with operations in Sweden, Germany, Finland, Estonia, Poland, Czech Republic and China. Among our customers are leading companies such as ABB, Epiroc, Getinge, Oerlikon, SAAB and Siemens – something we are incredibly proud of.
