TORBJÖRN SANDBERG APPOINTED CEO, ROSINA GARTZ APPOINTED INTERIM CFO

The board of directors of Impact Coatings AB (publ) has appointed Torbjörn Sandberg CEO of the company, effective today. The company has also appointed Rosina Gartz interim CFO from October 22, replacing Anders Nilsson who will retire.

Torbjörn Sandberg has served as interim CEO since May 28, 2018. He has a background as CEO of publicly listed and privately held companies including Sensys Gatso Group AB (publ), Birdstep Technology ASA (publ), Netadmin Systems, and ServiceFactory.

"I am excited and honored to have been chosen as CEO and look forward to working with the company's competent team to realize the long-term potential of Impact Coatings," said Torbjörn Sandberg.

"Torbjörn Sandberg has over the past four months established trust and credibility with Impact Coatings employees, customers, and the board of directors. With clarity and humility, he has helped Impact Coatings define a new business strategy and has the operational skills to make it a reality," said Mark Shay, Chairman of the Board.

Rosina Gartz has more than 20 years of experience in corporate financial management and industrial operations from companies including Assa Abloy, Svenska Cellulosa (SCA), NASDAQ, Hilding Anders International, and Ovako Group.

"Rosina Gartz has relevant experience and leadership skills in financial management from a wide range of industries, with a clear emphasis on production companies. She brings to Impact Coatings an entrepreneurial energy, which will help drive our progress toward becoming a mid cap listed industrial company. We thank Anders Nilsson for his valuable contribution to Impact Coatings since joining in June 2017, and wish him all the best in the future," said Torbjörn Sandberg.
