IMPACT COATINGS APPOINTS NEW PERMANENT CFO

Impact Coatings AB (publ) has appointed Marie Dhayer Teikmans permanent CFO. She will begin on March 19 and replaces Rosina Gartz, who has been interim CFO since October 22, 2018.

"We are extremely happy to bring Marie Dhayer Teikmans on board at Impact Coatings," said Torbjörn Sandberg, the company's CEO. "Her many years of industrial and international experience from financial management positions will further strengthen our team and sharpen the company's financial controls. She also brings valuable skills related to mergers and acquisitions."

Marie Dhayer Teikmans has substantial experience in financial leadership and industrial production from Sweden, Italy, and France. She was most recently CFO of Twister Group, an international, fast-growing business owned by Polaris Private Equity. She has previously been Head of Business Controlling at Alstom Power/GE Power Services in Sweden, CFO of Whirlpool Sweden, and has in total ten years of experience in financial management and control at Whirlpool Corporation. Marie Dhayer Teikmans has a Master's degree in Accounting, Controlling, and Information Systems from ESC Lille, France, and a degree in International Management from Institut Supérieur Européen de Gestion, Lille, France.

"We are also very thankful to Rosina Gartz, for over such a short period of time understanding Impact Coatings' needs in financial control, and for having so skillfully filled the role of interim CFO during the recruiting process," said CEO Torbjörn Sandberg.
