

SCANDINAVIAN EYEWEAR MANUFACTURER ORDERS COATING EQUIPMENT FROM IMPACT COATINGS

Impact Coatings has received an order from a Scandinavian eyewear manufacturer for the delivery of an additional coating system for decorative coatings. The delivery of a customized INLINECOATER™D is planned for Q4 2019. The order value is approximately SEK 10.8 million.

The customer is a global supplier of eyeglasses under its own brand, with annual sales exceeding EUR 75 million. The company's major markets are Northern Europe, North America, the Middle East, and East Asia.

For more information, contact:

Torbjörn Sandberg, CEO
+46 768 43 43 76

Peter Högfeldt, VP Marketing
+46 708 87 44 34

E-mail: investors@impactcoatings.se

Impact Coatings AB (publ) is required to disclose this information in accordance with EU market abuse regulations. The information was delivered, via the contact persons named above, for publication on February 19, 2019, at 09:25 a.m. CET.

About Impact Coatings AB

Impact Coatings develops and delivers world-leading technology for industrial PVD-coatings with a focus on fuel cell, decorative, metallization, and reflector applications. PVD is a method of, under vacuum, producing thin layers of metals and ceramics – surface coatings that maximize performance and durability. Impact Coatings markets coating equipment under the trade name INLINECOATER™ and coatings under MAXPHASE™.

The company's shares trade on the Nasdaq First North exchange (Nasdaq OMX Nordic). The company's Certified Adviser is Redeye AB, reachable via Certifiedadviser@redeye.se or +46 (0)8121576 90.