Toadman Interactive signs deal for a new digital game from Stonewheat & Sons through its subsidiary Sold Out

Sold Out has today signed an agreement to publish the next digital game from studio Stonewheat & Sons LLC. The game is scheduled for release in 2021.

"We're very excited to work with Sold Out on this new game," said Joel Davis, Company Director at Stonewheat & Sons LLC. "We're creating a fun digital game which we think gamers will love and to have a partner to help us reach that audience has given our team a huge boost."

"Fantastic studio and an awesome game, we're thrilled to have signed this new game from Stonewheat & Sons," said Garry Williams, CEO of Sold Out. "We are continuing to grow our line-up of awesome games and can't wait to announce this one fully at PAX East this year."
