Toadman releases new trailer for IGI : Origins today

Toadman Interactive AB (publ) ("Toadman") has today at 5 pm CET released a trailer for IGI : Origins (previously called Project I.G.I. 3), which is a game that Toadman fully owns. IGI : Origins is a sequel to the agent game released in the early 2000's that has been played by millions of gamers globally.

The trailer is the first larger project that shows the effect of the collaboration between Toadman and its newly acquired subsidiaries. Toadman has initiated similar marketing initiatives for all Toadman's own games and the result of that work will continuously be presented.

To watch the trailer, please visit the following link <https://youtu.be/UOh0VvNKXX0> or Toadman's website www.toadmaninteractive.com
