

Veg of Lund moves its headquarters to Lund

Veg of Lund AB is moving the company's headquarters to Lund, in the southern part of Sweden. As of today, Veg of Lund's Swedish operations are concentrated at Scheelevägen 22 in northeastern Lund, next to the research area Ideon Science Park and Edison Park.

"We have been given the opportunity to gather our operations at a reputable address in Lund, in an area where several innovative research and development companies are active. The new premises, with offices and a simpler test kitchen, provide a good opportunity for closer collaboration between our employees in research/development and those who work with marketing/sales," says Fredrik Carling, CEO of Veg of Lund. "Also nearby is LTH, part of Lund University, where Veg of Lund's founder Eva Tornberg conducts research and continues to have access to more advanced equipment for the development of new foods based on the company's patents".

New postal and street address: Veg of Lund AB, Scheelevägen 22, SE-223 63 Lund, Sweden.
