TagMaster AB to be listed on Nya Marknaden

Kista, Sweden, September 15th, 2005 - Beginning Monday September 19, 2005, trading in TagMaster shares will take place on Nya Marknaden, in the Stockholm Stock Exchange's trading system, SAXESS.

The company has entered into an agreement with Remium Securities as sponsor and liquidity provider. The sponsor is, according to an agreement with Stockholm Stock Exchange, responsible for monitoring that the company fulfils the requirements for trading on Nya Marknaden and also that it complies with the information requirements. TagMaster company information and information on trade and share price will be published on Nya Marknaden website at www.nyamarknaden.se.

"TagMaster has now reached a situation where we want to further our trading service to the financial market. By this change we can offer an improved trading service as information regarding prices, volumes and order depth is published in real time through the same canals as for exchange-listed shares. We have also appointed Remium Securities as a liquidity provider with the purpose to promote liquidity in the share within the framework of Stockholm Stock Exchange's system for liquidity providers. We are looking forward to the cooperation with Remium Securities and Nya Marknaden as they are both of highest reputation and provides us with a well-functioning market place and an increased level of financial service.", says Magnus Rehn, President of TagMaster.
