

New Country Director for Resurs Bank in Norway

Resurs Bank has recruited Gabor Molnar as the new Country Director for the bank's operations in Norway. Gabor Molnar most recently served as SVP at Nets in Norway.

Gabor Molnar has been Country Director for Resurs Bank's operations in Norway since 1 April. Gabor Molnar most recently served as SVP at Nets in Norway.

"Gabor has extensive experience from a variety of positions, for example, at Nets, Experian, DNB Nor and American Express, where he successfully drove growth, identified new market opportunities and developed partner business. "I look forward to working together with Gabor to continue to develop Resurs's operations in Norway," says Anna Naucière, CCO, Resurs Bank.

Resurs is well-established in the Norwegian market, both in the Consumer Loans product line and in Payment Solutions, where the company works together with well-known brands in a variety of different industries, such as NetOnNet, Biltema, Bauhaus, Mekonomen, Interoptik, KLM and Ticket With Resurs, retailers gain payment and financing solutions that will help increase average purchases and loyalty-driven sales, with the customer's shopping experience as the focal point.

"It feels great to be here and I look forward to leading Resurs's Norwegian operations. With my previous experience of working with payment solutions and card services in various industries, I will now focus on developing business with existing partners and also driving a robust new sales effort to further strengthen Resurs's position in Norway," says Gabor Molnar, Country Director, Resurs Bank Norway.
